

South Windsor High School South Windsor. Connecticut

"There Never Was In The World Two Opinions Alike,

No More Than Two Hairs Or Two Grains;

The Most Universal Quality Is

DIVERSITY."

Because he teaches us,
and guides us,
and inspires us . . .

Because he listens,
and cares,
and helps . . .
and most of all,
Because he is HIMSELF,
the class of 1972 respectfully dedicates this yearbook to
Mr. William A. Spohn

"I live not in myself,
but I become a portion of all those around me."

Children One and All

Some of us live in big white houses, some of us live in small.

Some of our names are written on blackboards, some are written on walls.

Some of our daddys work in factories, some of them stand in line.

Some of our daddys buy us marbles, some of them just buy wine.

But at night you can't tell Sunday suits from tattered overalls.

Then we're only children, children one and all.

Some of us take our lunch in boxes, some in paper sacks.

Some of us kids join in the laughter, some hear it at our backs.

Some of our mothers sew fine linen, some can't sew a stitch.

Some of our mothers dress up poorly, some of them dress up rich.

But at night you can't tell party dresses from hand-me-downs too small.

Then we're only children, children one and all.

Some of us learn our lessons poorly, some of us learn them well.

Some of us find an earthly heaven, some of us live in hell.

Some of us go right on a-preachin', without makin' too much sense.

Some of us hide behind a wall, some behind a fence.

But at night you can't tell picket fences from bricks that tower tall.

Then we're only children, children one and all.

Some of us grow up tall and handsome, some of us grow up plain
Some of us own the world in ransom, some of us just our name.
Some of our people die in mis'ry, some of them die in peace.
Some of our people die for nothing, but dying doesn't cease.
And at night you can't tell fancy coffins from boxes in the hall.
Then we're only children, children one and all.

Children ...

Future Business Leaders

The Future Business Leaders of America are involved with the public by offering their services to anyone or group who needs help. For example, selling tickets to various activities, or having members guide parents around the school on parents night. Usually at the beginning of the year the club sells items to cover expenses, such as field trips, or any other activities that might occur.

Mr. Bordonaro: Advisor Nancy Corcoran, Robin Kibbe, Sharline Kehoe, Patty Dodd, Gail Beaupre.

DECA

Distributive Education identifies a program of instruction which teaches marketing, merchandising, and management.

DECA identifies the program of youth activity relating to D.E. — Distribitive Education Clubs of America — and is designed to develope leaders for marketing and distribition. The advisor is Mr. Myette.

Computer Club

Math Club

Advisor: Miss Duffy

The computer club meets once a week to learn how to operate the computer and rudiments of programming in the various languages. Students from the math club participate in the Capital Area Math League with an emphasis on the "fine points and proofs."

Chess Club

Advisor: Mr. Hopkins

The Chess Club was organized this year primarily as an activity to pass the time while students are waiting to use the computer. A lively chess tournament was also held.

Ecology Club

The Gymnastic Club is for girls and boys who have an interest in gymnastics. There are different levels for different skills. Each level concentrates on their own routine, using uneven bars, balance beam, and floor exercises. Compositions must meet certain requirements but at the same time must demonstrate the personality and skill level of the individual gymnast.

Advisor: Miss Fern Managers: Debbie Saucier, Karen Flath, Terry Stosonis.

Richard Washbrook, Dennis Martin.

Two girls and two boys from South Windsor who have shown leadership and interest in school government are chosen by their classmates from a group selected by a faculty committee to attend the American Legion sponsored Nutmeg Boy's and Laurel Girl's States. This award consists of a week's convention at the University of Connecticut, where one learns the workings of the government.

Brenda Bachman, Kathy Marshall.

The selection is made by the faculty to a junior girl exhibiting strong evidence of conscientiousness poise, sympathetic understanding, unselfish service and a positive and constructive influence upon others, now and in the future.

Jim Biancucci

The D.A.R. Award is given by the Connecticut Daughters of the American Revolution, Inc., to the Senior Girl excelling in the following qualities which make for good citizenship: dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism.

The Junior Prom

"A Time For Us" was the main event of the junior year. The prom was held at the Statler Hilton on May 28, 1971. It was dinner-dance with music provided by "The Amber Portrait."

The court included: Queen Debbie Cyr and attendants: Robin Sandenburg, Patsy Linko, Nancy Dewey, and Norine LaVoie.

Debbie Cyr is crowned queen by Walter Booth.

Bally Hoo

The Bally Hoo marks the start of the Fall Sports Season. Every year students and cheerleaders gather round a huge bonfire to cheer the teams on to victory.

Porgy Tirebiter's Surprise Birthday Party

Senior-Get-Together

Traditionally the Senior Class welcomes all Freshmen at the Senior-Get-Together. This year all underclassmen were invited to attend Porgy Tirebiter's Surprise Birthday Party. The seniors provided three and a half hours of music, entertainment, and refreshments. The big event of the night was the selection of the Freshman Queen. Sue Lacy was crowned queen.

Bells Are Ringing

On March twenty-sixth and twenty-seventh, and April third and fourth, the Music Department presented its third annual musical, Bells Are Ringing. Under the direction of Mr. Lesbines and Miss Lawton the cast of about sixty performed the technically difficult show with an amazing amount of professionalism.
